Comparative Urban and Community Research is an annual review devoted to theoretical, empirical and applied research on the processes of urbanization and community change throughout the world. The format of Comparative Urban and Community Research enables the publication of manuscripts that are longer and more richly textured than the articles a quarterly journal can feature.

Submission requirements are as follows: 1) papers should be double-spaced; 2) an original plus two copies should be sent; 3) the author's name, affiliation, address and telephone number should appear on a separate cover sheet.

This volume was prepared with support from the Department of Applied Behavioral Sciences of the University of California, Davis. Editorial correspondence and manuscript submissions should be addressed to Comparative Urban and Community Research, Department of Applied Behavioral Sciences, University of California, Davis, 95616.
